

At your service Catering

When you book our additional fairytale pkg, we use At your service catering , they have a delicious menu that is absolutely amazing and will wow your guests. See menu options and they are ready to serve you for your special day. They cater to all dietary restrictions and will make anyone's request happen. Shawn and his team along with Sheila are 2 of the most outstanding humans who work tirelessly to make the food the biggest conversation piece. We also host a food tasting night with all of our booked couples for earlier in the wedding year. This year we did Valentine's Day and the turn out of 95 guests was amazing. It was your opportunity to taste great food and ask questions. We also decorate different style of tables to help with your decor decisions. We are here to please.
